

The Mid-Maine Community Forum invites you to its forum featuring

Pittsfield sisters and business partners
Jill and Jolene McGowan who will present
Sisters in the Fashion Business

Thursday, April 4, at 6:30PM at the First Universalist Church of Pittsfield on the corner Easy Street and Main

The Mid-Maine Community Forum continues its spring forum series with sisters, business partners, and Pittsfield natives Jill and Jolene McGowan Thursday, April 4, at 6:30pm at the First Universalist Church in Pittsfield.

Founded in 1994, the first line of clothing from Jill McGowan, Inc. was a series of white shirts. This line was inspired by Jill's work as a patternmaker for the famed menswear manufacturer, the Hathaway Shirt Co. After comparing her work on men's shirts to women's clothing of equal price, she realized the genuine need to improve the standard of women's clothing.

Jill's shirts and seasonal collections are now available in over 300 specialty stores around the country and her work has been featured in several publications including Women's Wear Daily, Harper's Bazaar, the New York Times, Victoria, Real Simple, More magazine, and the online fashion site: Daily Candy.

With her business partner and sister Jolene, and for the first time in Pittsfield, the two sisters will present their stories about working together to build this successful fashion business.

Please join us for this free event Thursday, April 4, to learn more. The Forum is free and open to all. Donations are welcome. For more info, contact Trudy Ferland at 487-6523.

The Mid-Maine Community Forum creates opportunities to engage community members in conversations about topics that shape our community and our world.